IMPORTANT NOTICE TO STUDENTS

This waiver exempts active military personnel and their dependents from paying nonresident tuition. This exemption does not require any intent on the part of the military member, spouse, or child to become a resident of California. If it is the student's intent to become a California resident, it is his/her responsibility to meet the residency requirements under the California Education Code in order to be deemed a resident for tuition purposes. For information regarding residency requirements, contact the Admissions and Records Office Residency Specialist.
