

Academic Senate Election Rules

At the beginning of each nomination period, these rules will be posted to the senate web page.

1. Each person nominated for senate officer or representative must accept the nomination in person or in writing to the chair of the Election Committee.
2. Upon acceptance of the nomination for senate officer or representative, every candidate will receive a copy of these rules electronically.
3. Candidates must send an email to the chair of the Election Committee confirming receipt of these election rules, and include a sentence that states that he/she agrees to the rules for the election. Candidate statements will not be posted on the senate web page or sent to faculty without prior agreement to the election rules.
4. The Election Committee will not be responsible for any campaign material or event other than posting the candidate statement.
5. By noon on Monday November 12, 2018, each candidate is invited to submit electronically to the senate Vice-President, a candidate statement not to exceed one page in length. The candidate may include qualifications, experience, etc. in the statement, but may not address or mention any other candidate in the race.
6. By noon on Monday November 19, 2018, the statements will be posted to the senate website in their entirety. The Election Committee will not spell check or proofread candidate statements. The Election Committee will notify the faculty when candidate statements are available on the Senate webpage.
7. The statements will remain on the Senate's web page until voting ends.
8. Once voting begins, no campaign materials may be distributed in any form.
9. If any candidate has questions, please contact a member of the Election Committee: Steve Davis, Dee Aceves, Sharon Sampson, Lara Braff or Tiffany Glen-Hall.
10. Any candidate found in violation of these rules will be eliminated from the current slate of candidates and disqualified from running for office for the current term of office. Example: if a candidate runs for office with a two-year term, and is found in violation of these rules, then the candidate may not run for office for two years. If a candidate is found in violation of these rules in two elections, the candidate will no longer be eligible to run for senate officer or representative.
