

Academic Senate Committee Reports

November 21, 2022

Curriculum Committee – Dee Aceves

No current updates.

Professional Advancement – Nadra Farina-Hess

We are losing access to Formstacks, which is the program used to accept applications for Academic Rank. I am in the process of converting applications to MicroSoft Forms. Also building an online application, or fillable pdf, for Distinguished Faculty nominations.

Online Teaching & Learning – Dave Dillon

- HyFlex Coordinator Elisabeth Burke is offering HyFlex trainings for faculty.
- OTLC is beginning to recruit faculty interested in volunteering to participate in POCR (Peer Online Course Review) improve the quality and equity of our online courses.
- OTLC reviewed and approved 46 Distance Education Addendum Proposals which have moved on for Curriculum Review.
- The student support hub is now available in Canvas.
- Uploading Institutional SLOs into Canvas is in progress.
- OTLC continues to discuss accessibility campus wide and make recommendations for how we can educate and encourage more learning resources to be accessible for all

EDTCCC (Equity Committee) – Steve Davis

Program Review – Joyce Fries

Chairs & Coordinators – Bonnie Ripley

Faculty Professional Dev. – Karen Hern

FPDC is still searching for an AHN member.

The committee is in the process of reviewing FLEX proposals and working on the FLEX week calendar.

Spring 2023 FLEX week will be January 23 - January 27, 2023.

An update regarding PD credit being awarded for Workplace Sexual Harassment Training was recently sent out to Division Deans.

Part-time Faculty – Richard Unis