

Fall 2020 AUP Update

The background is a vibrant green with various purple geometric shapes. There is a large solid purple circle in the upper left, a smaller solid purple circle in the upper right, a purple square outline on the left, a purple dashed line in the lower left, and a purple line forming a right-angled corner in the upper right. A large black semi-circle is positioned on the right side of the slide, containing the text.

During your department discussions of the SLO assessments conducted during the last academic year, did you notice any trends that can impact this unit planning update?

Academic Affairs

For many departments there are renewed efforts to set, revisit, and assess SLOs

Some departments have not had consistent SLO assessment in the past and are addressing this

A few departments are on track to assess this semester

A few departments either did not respond or had no trends to note

A few departments expressed concern about budget cuts or low enrollments impacting SLOs and SLO assessment

Administrative Services

- Only one department responded
- Not enough data to observe trends for this area

Student Services

Concerns about decreased participation in programs due to virtual environment and/or the steady declines in enrollment we've been observing for the past few years.

---

Some departments reported that they appreciate the shift to using more virtual tools to track student engagement while others expressed still needing the tech support necessary to serve students virtually.

---

A couple of departments reported needing to update their SSOs
